MILLERSBURG ITEMS.

Miss Lucy Robinson is among the sick.

Mr. G. W. Judy was in town Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Ida Dodson is suffering from an attack of grippe.

Mr. Russell Powell is improving from a recent illness.

Mr. George Howard is seriously ill with typhoid-pneumonia.

Mr. S. K. Proctor left Tuesday for a few days visit in Hamilton, O.

Mrs. Anna Jefferson left Tuesday for a visit to relatives in Mason county.

Mrs. Mollie Cray is some better after suffering an attack of acute indigestion.

Master Howard Fightmaster, whose condition was thought to be critical, is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Lula Wood, of Richmond, Ind., arrived Tuesday as the guest of Mr. M. P. Wells and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hawkins were guests Wednesday of her father, Dr. Thompson, at Blue Licks.

W. B. Collins moved Wednesday from the property of Mr. Mart Bowles to that of the Griffith sisters on Vimont street.

Waddell Bros. have installed electric lights in their drug store and Mr. T. Bentley in his barber shop. Others will do so in the near future.

This evening at 7:40 a recital will be given at the M. F. C. by the pupils in music and expression. Patrons and friends of the institution are cordially invited.

Mrs. Turner Perry, of Owingsville, arrived Tuesday to be present at the golden anniversary of the marriage of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McClintock.

Three members of the family of Mr. Alonzo Case, who have been quite ill with typhoid fever are improving. Mr. Case and one son are yet in a serious condition from typhoid.

Mrs. W. V. Shaw entertained Wednesday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 with Five Hundred in honor of Miss Dakota Best, of Washington, D. C. Most of the society ladies of town were present.

The International Harvester Company, of America, presented "The Romance of the Reaper" in moving pictures at the Opera House Wednesday night. This entertainment was free and they were greeted by a good though not large audience. Their entertainment was in every respect good and would bear repetition.

The golden anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McClintock, will be celebrated Saturday afternoon at their beautiful home on Trigg avenue. Mr. and Mrs. McClintock have spent their entire life in the Millersburg community and belong to the old pioneer families of Central Kentucky. They are both remarkably preserved for their years and Mr. McClintock is yet an active business man. For years he has been identified with the mule industry and a great part of his early life was spent in Southern mule markets. This promises to be the most prominent social event of the season in Millersburg, there being more than four hundred invitations issued for the occasion.

Twenty-Four Indictments Returned.

The Scott county grand jury returned Wednesday twenty-four indictments. Four of the indictments were against keepers of alleged gambling places, while fifteen of the number were for bootlegging and illegal forms of whisky selling.

Base Ball Notes.

Manager McCann, of the Maysville club, has signed Chas. Wetterer, of the Carolina Association, and Harold Runyan, an outfielder of Milford, O.

Manager Ed. McKernan, of the Battle Creek, Mich. club, who will come south with his team this spring will play a series of games with the Maysville team in that city the latter part of April, according to the announcement of Manager McCann.

McKernan will in all probability touch Paris before returning to Michigan, with what we hope, his champions.

Report of Cain Sale.

The public sale of stock, crop, farming implements, etc., belonging to W. F. Cain on the Flat Rock pike in Bourbon county, was conducted Wednesday by Harris & Speakes, real estate agents. A large crowd attended, and the prices realized were satisfactory. Horses brought from $140 to $187.50; mules $135 to $150; 2 milk cows $45 each; 20 head of 800 pound yearling steers brought $33 per head; 10 brood sows $12 to $16; sheats $4 to $6; sheep $5.40 per head; 25 barrels of corn sold for $5.40 per barrel; 5 tons of baled oats, $31 a ton; 200 chickens brought from 25 to 40 cents each; the meat of six hogs; hams 16 cents per pound, shoulders 12 cents; bacon sides 13 cents, and lard 13 1-2 cents per pound. Farming implements and household furniture brought good prices.

Beck Beer.

Pabst celebrated Milwaukee Beck Beer on tap. Also in bottles at Crutis', near L. & N. depot.

Will Meet Cynthia Teams.

The basket ball teams of the Paris High School—the boys and girls—will go to Cynthia tomorrow night where they will meet the teams of the Cynthia High School in a double header at the Cynthia High School gymnasium. A number of the High School enthusiasts will go down to boost their teams, and a double victory is hoped for.

Lace Curtain Bargains.

To close out our lace curtains in one, two and three pair lots they will go on sale tomorrow at 9 o'clock. Remarkable lowness of prices. Silk tapestry, muslin and curtains of every description go in this sale. Be on hand early. J. T. HINTON.

Genuine Sorghum.

New barrel of genuine Sorghum molasses just opened. Phone your order. SAUER.

Sheep Quarantine.

Dr. Payne, Government livestock inspector, is in Winchester in the interest of the enforcement of the law requiring the quarantine of sheep afflicted with the scab. The disease has almost disappeared, there being only one small flock in Clark county now affected. The quarantine cannot be raised on Clark county because other counties contain many infected flocks, it is said.
